

Application for Life Event insurance cover

How to apply

Complete this form to apply for new or more cover due to a life event.

Important information about your application

AustralianSuper insurance is provided by TAL Life Limited (the Insurer), ABN 70 050 109 450, AFSL 237848.

If your application is accepted, your new or increased cover will be limited cover for at least two years, and will have the same exclusions and other special conditions that apply to your existing cover, if any.

If you don't have the type of cover that you're applying for, you may be provided with an additional amount of basic cover for Death and/or TPD cover as long as you haven't previously fixed or cancelled cover of that type. If your basic Death or TPD cover is age based, you must be at least 25 years old for it to start.

Your cover will start as long as you're receiving employer super contributions, regardless of your super balance or age.

Go to australiansuper.com/ChangingCover to understand how the Insurer considers your application.

Check that you're eligible

You can apply to increase your cover once every 12 months and you'll only need to answer a few health questions. Apply within 60 days of one of these life events:

- you get married or divorced
- you have a child or adopt a child
- you start or end a de facto relationship
- you take out a mortgage to purchase or build your main home in Australia
- your spouse or de facto dies
- you first become eligible for a Centrelink carer's allowance.

You can't apply for or increase any cover type(s) you've previously cancelled or opted out of.

You must attach a certified copy of the relevant document(s) outlined in section 5.

The maximum amount of Death and TPD cover you can apply for with each life event is $500,000 (for each cover type).

Your increased cover can't cause your total cover to exceed the following maximum cover amounts:

Type of cover	Maximum cover available
Death and/or TPD	$1 million (cover above $600,000 will be capped at $1 million or 10 x your salary ¹ , whichever is lower)
Income Protection	Up to $20,000 a month or 85% of your salary ¹ , whichever is lower

Your application won't be accepted if:

- the application and relevant attachments are received by AustralianSuper more than 60 days after the life event, or
- you've successfully applied for new or increased cover for a life event in the last 12 months (as at the date of the more recent life event).

If you're not eligible to apply for or increase cover using this form, or you want cover above the life event limits, you can apply to increase your cover by logging into your account and going to Insurance or using the Change your insurance form for AustralianSuper Select at australiansuper.com/select. You'll need to provide detailed health information for the Insurer to consider.

¹ Annual before-tax salary earned from your regular job(s), excluding Superannuation Guarantee (SG) contributions. Your AustralianSuper Select employer may have arranged a tailored definition of salary, check the AustralianSuper Select booklet for your employer at australiansuper.com/select

Duty to take reasonable care

The duty to take reasonable care

When you apply for insurance, you are treated as if you are applying for cover under an individual consumer insurance contract. A person who applies for cover under a consumer insurance contract has a legal duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to the Insurer before the contract of insurance is entered into.

A misrepresentation is a false answer, an answer that is only partially true, or an answer which does not fairly reflect the truth. This duty also applies when extending or making changes to existing insurance, and reinstating insurance.

If you do not meet your duty

If you do not meet your legal duty, this can have serious impacts on your insurance. Under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) there are a number of different remedies that may be available to the Insurer. They are intended to put the Insurer in the position it would have been in if the duty had been met. For example, the Insurer may:

- avoid the cover (treat it as if it never existed);
- vary the amount of the cover; or
- vary the terms of the cover.

Whether the Insurer can exercise one of these remedies depends on a number of factors, including:

- whether reasonable care was taken not to make a misrepresentation. This depends on all of the relevant circumstances;
- what the Insurer would have done if the duty had been met – for example, whether it would have offered cover, and if so, on what terms;
- whether the misrepresentation was fraudulent; and
- in some cases, how long it has been since the cover started.

Before any of these remedies are exercised, the Insurer will explain the reasons for its decision, how to respond and provide further information, and what you can do if you disagree.

Guidance for answering the questions in this form

You are responsible for the information provided to the Insurer. When answering questions, please:

- Think carefully about each question before you answer. If you are unsure of the meaning of any question, please ask us before you respond.
- Answer every question.
- Answer truthfully, accurately and completely. If you are unsure about whether you should include information, please include it.
- Review your application carefully before it is submitted. If someone else helped prepare your application (for example, your adviser), please check every answer (and if necessary, make any corrections) before the application is submitted.

Please note that there may be circumstances where the Insurer later investigates whether the information given to it was true. For example, it may do this when a claim is made.

Changes before your cover starts

Before your cover starts, the Insurer may ask you whether the information that has been given as part of your application for insurance remains accurate or whether there has been a change to any of your circumstances. As any changes might require further assessment or investigation, it could save time if you let us or the Insurer know about any changes when they happen.

If you need help

It's important that you understand your obligations and the questions that are being asked. Please contact us for help if you have difficulty understanding the process of obtaining insurance or answering any questions.

Please also let us know if you're having difficulty due to a disability, understanding English or for any other reason – we're here to help and can provide additional support.

Does your employer pay for your cover?

If your employer pays for your Income Protection and you increase your cover and/or change your waiting period, your employer will stop paying for your Income Protection. The total cost will be deducted from your super account monthly.
